DEFENDANT: Matthew Penberg
CASE NUMBER: 1:23-cr-00285-OEM-1STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The Defendant will be supervised by the United States Probation Office - Eastern District of New York. He is to follow all instruction of the Probation Officer related to the conditions of supervision.
2. The defendant will initially reside at the Crisis Residence located at the Pilgrim Psychiatric Center (PPC), owned and operated by the Office of Mental Health of New York. While the defendant resides at the Crisis Residence he will follow all rules of the Crisis Residence. The United States Probation Officer will be included in all housing decisions and must approve any changes in residence.
3. As a second step for housing options for the defendant, he has also completed a lengthy and comprehensive application for long-term supportive mental health housing through Long Island Single Point of Access Housing or the SPA program. SPA specializes in housing residents with serious behavioral health issues and offers on-site support to reduce hospitalization and homelessness.
4. The United States Probation Officer will be included in all housing decisions and must approve of any changes in residence. If living arrangement changes are to occur (such as location or the people he lives with), he must notify the United States Probation Officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the Probation Officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, he must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
5. The defendant shall submit to a mental health treatment evaluation and, if deemed necessary, shall participate in a mental health treatment program, as selected by the Probation Department. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of such services rendered and/or any psychotropic medications prescribed to the degree he is reasonably able, and shall cooperate in securing any applicable third-party payment. The defendant shall disclose all financial information and documents to the Probation Department to assess his ability to pay.
6. The defendant shall comply with the medication regimen prescribed by a licensed psychiatrist approved by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of such services rendered and any psychotropic medications prescribed, via co-payment or full payment in an amount to be determined by the U.S. Probation Office, based upon the defendant's ability to pay and/or the availability of third-party payment.
7. The defendant shall submit to a substance abuse evaluation and, if deemed necessary, shall participate in an outpatient drug treatment program selected by the U.S. Probation Department. The defendant shall contribute to the costs of such treatment not to exceed an amount determined reasonable by the Probation Department's Sliding Scale for Substance Abuse Treatment Services, and shall cooperate in securing any applicable third party payment, such as insurance or Medicaid. The defendant shall disclose all financial information and documents to the Probation Department to assess their ability to pay. The defendant shall not consume any alcohol or other intoxicants during and after treatment, unless granted a prescription by a licensed physician and proof of same is provided to the Probation Department. The defendant shall submit to testing during and after treatment to ensure abstinence from drugs and alcohol.
8. The defendant shall not have contact with any victims of the instant offense. This means that they shall not attempt to meet in person, communicate by letter, telephone, or through a third party, without the knowledge and permission of the U.S. Probation Office.
